

Submission Checklist for Optica Publishing Group Journals

Which journal is most appropriate for your paper?
Did you apply the correct manuscript template for Word or TeX when preparing your paper?
Include a conflicts of interest Disclosures statement and Data Availability Statement in your manuscript. Both statements are required for publication.
Review the Copyright Transfer Agreement and obtain necessary clearances prior to submission. Have you have obtained permission and given appropriate attribution to reuse figures, images, or other material from other sources?
Review the $\underline{\text{Optica Publishing Group Ethical Guidelines}}$, in particular the expectations of authors.
Have your co-authors approved the manuscript? Is the co-author listing accurate?
Compile contact information for all co-authors.
Identify the funding agency(s) for your research results.
Is a cover letter required? A response to previous reviews is required for all resubmissions. Optica requires a cover letter for all submissions.
Optics Express and Optics Letters: A novelty and impact statement is required.
Are you submitting supplemental material ? Did you follow the guidelines for labeling the material in your manuscript?
Review the publication fees that are applicable to your selected journal.
